Soccer Program for Young Athletes with Special Needs

Toward its goal of providing a positive soccer atmosphere for all soccer athletes, Sporting Lee's Summit has a soccer program for young athletes who are cognitively or physically challenged. Sporting Lee's Summit will do their best to accommodate a variety of athletes with different ability levels.

Program:

Sporting Lee's Summit will offer a 45 minute soccer program on Thursdays from 5:55 – 6:40pm for the Spring season of 2016. The program will consist of skill development activities, soccer-related games, and small-sided scrimmages.

Dates:

The soccer program will run for 8 weeks from March - May.

Location:

The program is held indoors at Z Sports Arena located at 707 Doc Henry Road in Greenwood, MO. If the weather is nice, practice will sometimes be held out at Legacy Park.

Uniforms/Gear:

Sporting Lee's Summit provides a team shirt. Black shorts are the player's choice but not required.

Ages:

Sporting Lee's Summit starts at age 4 and continues up to age 14 (as of July 31, 2015). Athletes will likely be placed in groups based on their size and ability.

Fees:

There are no fees for this program; however, the program will be limited to the number of players it can accommodate (approximately 30).
